A symposium and workshop were held by Sources of Peace for Women and Youth Rights, as a member of the SOAWR Coalition and the Bridges of Justice for Legal Consultations, at the Sheraton Hotel in the Libyan capital Tripoli city, on the Maputo Protocol for rights of the African women, which was ratified by the Libyan state in 2003.

The event was in participation of the legal advisors, Dr Najia Al-Atraq, Ms Aida Baayou, and the Counsellor Naima Al-Sharif, under the supervision and organisation of Ms Asia Al-Shwehdi, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the organisation “Sources of Peace” and member of SOAWR Coalition the concerned board with the Maputo Protocol, in cooperation with several consultants and experts in the field of women’s rights, from civil society organisations, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Women’s Committee in the Libyan Parliament, and a representative of the Policy Office in the Prime Ministry.

One of the most important recommendations is to issue a booklet entitled “Libyan Women’s Rights under the Maputo Protocol.”
